Principal's Corner

2014
Four Star School
★★★★

Hello Everyone,

The days are passing by so quickly now. The kids keep letting me know how many days of school are left. That's always good news and bad news. This time of year there is always so much to do and so little time.

Our society seems to place a lot of emphasis on being first. We remember many things that were a first for us, like our first job or first pet. This weekend is First Communion for our second grade Catholic students. It will be a day that most will always remember. As these students receive this sacrament, let's all remember them in prayer. Pray that this event will guide them in forming a happy and faith-filled future.

Easter parties were lots of fun. In this picture, Paxton, in grade 1, enjoys his healthy snack of Goldfish, Cheese cubes, and Orange slices. All treats at classroom parties next year will have to meet the Smart Snacks guidelines in order to be compliant with our revised Wellness policy. The new Wellness policy is being finalized and will be posted on our school website at stjosephprinceton.com under the cafeteria tab. Watch for it!

Hope everyone had a Happy Easter. Let's do our best to keep the spirit of Jesus alive.

Have a good weekend.

Mr. Gilbert ☺
